STRATA
SPRING SUMMER 2027

MATERIAL LANGUAGE

COMPRESSED INTO FORM

Bonded fabrics become a reflection of nature's layered construction.

Materials are fused with precision, creating garments that feel both protective and fluid.

Clean surfaces conceal complexity beneath, revealing strength through restraint.

STRATA spring / summer 27

Inspired by the layered formations of nature, STRATA explores strength built over time.

Geological landscapes are shaped through accumulation, erosion, and transformation. The collection translates these processes into silhouettes that feel instinctive yet intentional.

Raw yet refined, STRATA reflects a quiet confidence rooted in permanence rather than excess.
